

[Name]

Write a positive description of yourself. Who you are today, not who you were or want to be. Keep this brief.

OBJECTIVE | GOAL

This is your overall goal for your journey with Christ and should involve knowing who you are in Him. Try to keep this to no more than 3 sentences.

SKILLS

List some of your positive character traits. Use one or two word answers rather than full sentences.

STUDY

What are you currently doing to further your walk with Christ?

SERVICE

How do you give of your time to help the body of Christ? To serve others? Currently not in the past.

WORK EXPERIENCE

How have you applied what you've learned to help others?

QUALIFICATIONS

What personal attributes do you think help you to be a good witness to others about who Christ is? You could mention key lessons have you learned so far in your walk with Christ.

ACCOMPLISHMENTS

What changes have you personally feel like you've made that shows God has been working in your life?

LEADERSHIP

What have you done or are you doing to stretch/grow your faith? This would be a good place to put an example of how you are taking steps in obedience or when God has called you into a position.

REFERENCES | YOUR "PEOPLE"

These are people that you allow to speak into your life. They set a good example in their daily lives, build your faith and pray for you. They will comfort you but not coddle you, encourage you but not enable you. You can trust them to hold you accountable, to help you reach your full potential and become who God has called you to be. Include their name, title (relationship to you) and why you feel this person is qualified to fill such an important role in your life.
